Now that you're leaving
It's got me thinking
Maybe I'll do a little leaving too
Baby believe me
If I could leave me
I wouldn't wait a single second too

Everybody's slowing down
Everybody's slowing down but us
We're like a bubble when it hits the floor
Maybe we'll break,
But maybe we're gonna love each other even more

Sooner or later
I'll come and waiter
You'll come buying and I'll start lying all over again
Sooner or later
I'll open my crater
You'll come a'filling, and end up spilling all over again

Everybody's slowing down
Everybody's slowing down but us
We're like a bubble when it hits the floor
Maybe we'll break,
But maybe we're gonna love each other even more
