Tonight there's no denying, no there's no denying There's something magic in the air
Emotional disorder, came out of nowhere
And took me unaware
The patterns of the oceans, lost in her emotions
You know that I don't care

On nights when the north wind blows through your heart
Dream of a new age
On nights when the north wind blows through your
heart
All I can do is wait

There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be hoping for
There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be dreaming of

Cool evening falling, I can hear her calling Cross the serpentine
Dark and chaotic, slow and hypnotic
She comes into my mind
And tonight nothing matters, no it doesn't matter
Everything will be fine

On nights when the north wind blows through your
heart
Dream of a new age
On nights when the north wind blows through your
heart
All I can do is wait

There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be hoping for
There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be dreaming of
There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be wishing for

There's a star in the night sky

The kind of star we would be hoping for
There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be dreaming of
There's a star in the night sky
The kind of star we would be wishing for
