They made with their hands a path across the elegance i remember now all the stories from this dream i know that you have been living in the past but i found the way to reach the highest ground and hidden mysteries buried in this town

today is a rainy day and the memories come around there is a secret tale about an old lost town i used to listen to what some people said about a big blue sky that reigned over the place while the shadows and tears

from the dark
claimed back their space between the clouds and stars and the rain the rainy days they came back and people lose their faith waiting all the time looking for the reason why the end never remains the empty hours from the past never come back again who knows what made god decided to destroy that promise land deceiving to the crowd and things remains the same today is a sunny day can you hear the freedom sound from the bottom of the sea the ghost are dancing round they are between you and us and soon will come the end from the town that never was the message has been sent

souls of those guilty of envy they saw a hollow mountain full of fire pride malice suffer here taking more than people needs to share yesterday i heard the voice from blind men
"raise your hand"

stare at the sun of anger i'm a stranger but just a normal man pray nothing is forever we'll be together till the day we die

i haven't given you anything at all i haven't given you any order

why i am looking for the things that i can't feel i know i want to be the man i used to be no one will be stay and your way won't be my way could i believe in you today dead men tell no tales angels from this earth gone to the sky gone to everywhere

sometimes i can hear anger voices from a fight honor or disgrace suicide around the place ancients were not slaves died stand up full of grace calling on me calling me

the third day is coming up a brand new star has born am i dreaming?

spread your light see the lost town die close to your eyes it's time to fly

you search for things that are taking you high and far out of truth missing your lost youth can't you feel life's passing by

25 hundred nights fighting for a freedom sign my spirit flies away from your heart to my head yes i will be there

i'm feeling sad when people turn all things to dark and i'm crossing all the bridges till i'll reach your star the dreams 'bout days of glory they won't never back the silence reigns on deserts future stops the time now today i?m looking for a brand new way to lead me to that place for watching you from their point of view i don?t care what people say i don?t care what you?ve done today how to pray to the dark when it?s a sunny day i don?t mind if you are now controlling can you hear what words now i?m shouting sure when all these things are going down you won?t be around

Â“raise your handÂ”
