(Ashanti)

You think you own whatever land you land on
The Earth is just a dead thing you can claim
But I know every rock, and tree, and creature
Has a life, has a spirit, has a name

You think the only people, who are people
Are the people who look and think like you
But if you walk the footsteps of a stranger
You learn the things you never knew, you never knew

Have you ever heard the wolf cry to the blue corn
moon?
Or ask the grinning bobcat why he grins?
Can you sing with all the voices of the mountains?
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?
Ohhhh

(Shi Shi)

Come run the hidden pine trails of the forest
(the forest)
Come taste the sun sweet berries of the Earth
(of the Earth)
Come roll in all the riches all around you
(all around you)
And for once never wonder what they're worth

(Ashanti)

The rainstorm and the river are my brothers
The heron and the otter are my friends
And we are all connected to each other
In the circle of a hoop that never ends

Have you ever heard the wolf cry to the blue corn
moon?
Or let the eagle tell you where he's been?
Can you sing with all the voices of the mountains?
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?

How high does the sycamore grow?
If you cut it down then you'll never know

And you'll never hear the wolf cry to the blue corn
moon
For whether we are white or copper skinned
We need to sing with all the voices of the mountains
We need to paint with all the colors of the wind

You can own the Earth and still
All you'll own is Earth until
You c
