Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

When I woke up this morning
I said I know I deserve much better
Sitting around, waiting around
For you to try and get it right

So many times I've tried to tell myself
It's all a faze, everywhere I would go
They could see the pain all on my face

And everybody always asked why I stay Didn't leaving, messing, maybe learning to change his way
And now I'm making up an excuse about better days
Knowing that I should've turned and walk away

Staring at the ease of yesterday
Thinking 'bout all the games you used to play
Now I don't know you trying to come back now
It's funny how things come back around

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

Now after all this time you finally realize that I'm over you
'Cause I am not there for you the way you were used to Eventually I knew you'd come back begging on your knees
I've turned my back on you today and here is what I say

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

It's about time I found someone that wants to be here for me
No more deceiving, no reaming, believing all your heartless lies
I know I'm through with you boy, there is no giving in now
There's only one thing I want you to be thinking about

Where were you when I was alone?
I don't need you, I'm on my own
Where were you when I was alone?
I ain't no one's Mrs. So So

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So

Where were you when I was all alone?
See I don't need you, now I'm standing on my own
When I was down you weren't around, so go
'Cause I used to be known as Mrs. So So
