We open just like a box office hit
Like 50 million, 3 a day, screaming fans, no where to sit
But behind the scenes everything was wrong
Like the credits just came on
You were up and gone

The rerun still come on they still make me cry
Everytime I hope they change the part
Where you walked out my life
Wish I could rewrite the script
Change the set and choose the role
Then me direct the show

If I could...
Rerun my life part 2
Wouldn't have you in it
It start with a girl so new
Not an actress in it

And you can buy tickets to the show
Sit on the front row
But you would never be the star
In my life part 2

You played the role so well
Girl you earned your check
The sex scene
You drew them out like an architect
And it made me think our chemistry
Was on and off the screen
Not just in magazines

And now I'm looking for the girl
That ain't been there before
The kind of girl
That can leave the drama at the door
I wanna know, what she says to me
"I love you so", that what she really means

If I could...
Rerun my life part 2

Wouldn't have you in it
It start with a girl so new
Not an actress in it

And you can buy tickets to the show
Sit on the front row
But you would never be the star
In my life part 2

You can buy the soundtrack seat
Or get on dvd
Tell all of your friends when you see it on tv
"That should've been me"
But you ain't gonna win a oscar
Save the speech, don't bother
I already know where the story goes
It's time to start my life part 2

If I could...
Rerun my life part 2
Wouldn't have you in it
It start with a girl so new
Not an actress in it

And you can buy tickets to the show
Sit on the front row
But you would never be the star
In my life part 2

Oh, oh, oh
In my life part 2
You can buy tickets to the show
Cause you never be a part
Of my life part 2
