ohh, ohhh, ohhh, ohhh, ohh seems like everyday is something new i don't wanna fight you don't wanna fight but still we argue this ain't making sense what we had was real but now we're faking it lately we don't even touch could it be me could it be you could it be the hell we put each other through for what the fact that we've been together this long doesn't gives us the right to keep holding on i don't need you no more that's why i'm slamming

doors
you don't love me no more that's why you're slamming
i'm throwing my self all across the living room your in the kitchen breaking dishes screaming i'm a goon we cant do this no more that's why were slamming
that's why we're slamming doors (that's why slamming
doors)
that's why we're slammin slamming doors (slammin slammin)
that's why we're slammin slamming doors (that's why slamming doors)

our picture frames falling down off the wall, but the glassing gone cut you like you cut me when i found out what was wrong can't believe what's going down infront of me can't believe i've been sleeping with the enemy and everything ain't okay (okay okay okay) and i can't make it go away (go away, go away, go away)
the fact that we've been together this long doesn't give us the right to keep holding on i don't need you anymore that's why i'm slamming

i'm throwing my self all across the living room
goon
we cant do this no more that's why were slamming
that's why we're slamming doors (slammin, slamming
doors)
that's why we're slammin slamming doors (slammin slammin)
slamming doors)

we're telling our hearts in our house apart (we can't do this we can't do this we can't do this no more) i still care about you but all we do is argue (we can't do this we can't do this we can't do this no more) we've broken everything there is to break i don't know how much i can take the fact we've been together this long doesn't give us the right to keep holding on (holding on)

doors (slamming doors, thats why im slammin) you don't love me no more that's why your slamming
i'm throwing my self all across the living room
goon
that's why we're slamming doors (slammin, slamming
doors)
that's why we're slammin slamming doors (slammin slammin)
slamming doors)
