There's nothing like waking to the sun in you face like say Hey kid, let's play, today is the day, I feel great after fall night sleep
And really cool dream bout this bacory: Eggs and bacon please,
And a warm compety with some honey, yeah honey Milk and honey, my buddies love it I run em muck my luggies
I never need a tell me talk a dummy luck Got a chocolate like something to funny 'cause life is wonderful Never let it trouble when you gonna do Remember the number one rule, that this two show past
So throw em the new ash taking shoes off, Put them the feed in the grass light

Hey you know what I'm saying Just like is a nice day outside Blue sky not a could in it

I got a real good feeling everything is gonna be alright
you, alright you
I got a real good feeling everything is gonna be alright
you, alright you

Yeah this barbecue it may be happen the pool
The truth is we got nothing to lose Said listen the tune, stay cool and just taking the view Poor shoes maybe open the boots Hope you know that you lose that's the move

Yeah let's go to the roof Roll the dude take the moment to So get in from the wind til the sun it Sing from the stomach, sun it keep your turn it No let a room from you say something you know nothing about
But I'll loud on the front of the crowd Settle down and enjoy when it's coming

World is an onion, pearl keep it for a hundred, no fronting I

I got a real good feeling everything is gonna be alright
you, alright you
I got a real good feeling everything is gonna be alright
you, alright you

It's my favorite song, you gotta put it on Yeah it's my favorite song, yeah you gotta put it on It's my favorite song, you gotta put it on
This this my favorite song, yeah you gotta put it on It's my favorite song, you gotta put it on
This my favorite song, yeah you gotta put it on This my favorite song, you gotta put it on
This my favorite song, yeah you gotta put it on

I got a real good feeling everything is gonna be alright
you, alright you
I got a real good feeling everything is gonna be alright
you, alright you
Hey
