Yeah, what's up everybody?
My name's Asher Roth
And this is the Greenhouse Effect I'll be your host for this evening I brought a couple friends Some of 'em you might know But let's start the show

I got this thing, sorta like King's dream, a feeling of instinct a vision that's in sync with everything I think that if I just rhyme, take one day at a time don't miss the blink of an eye, gotta stay positive Isn't it common as your common sense? ready to die under rhyme and sense I should have been more wise with the time I spent if I could make up my mind I'd be dominant but this rap thing is Russian roulette one bullet, don't pull it, don't do it so stupid, 'cause once you gone you won't come back this is life, one chance to prove your ass that's why I'm spendin' every second, every breath I get to rev it if I live to never say that I was not a threat, a lethal weapon better yet, a menace with aggression press that red button, every rep that said I'm nothin' Shit

Now let's start the show
I came here to go to the top of the globe yeah, Ash 'bout to blow In case you aint know I'm new on the set Stay tuned for what's next the Greenhouse Effect

You know
