The world

Thought I could save the world with the rhythm to rhyme
But then I came to find they had a prison in mind
With violence on the rise got us livin' in crime
They wanna lock us up, take your position in life
Well, by God, if this isn't a sign Then we have no idea what we've been visited by Yea, you bet it's real, we all be shouldn't lyin'
But they say it has show, man this isn't the time
But when is it?
Our people been evicted from homes they grew up in but nobody cares to listen Man it's pretty sick, they tryna vill of our religions and pit us against each other when nobody's really livin' Capitalism, this is a growing issue
You with us or against us? Pick which one is you Won't be until this fuckin' revolution lives
That they already out for, ready to come and get you
This world

This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never enough
This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never
enough
This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never
enough
This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never

Am I the last one left? Peace, love and happiness Or just another stupid rappin' mouth that's got a stupid ass to kiss?
So I could get a buck with blood suckers live it up Just give me something man
Why is it have to come to pistol, cuffs?
These drugs bad man and they snorting up bad salts Head raw and crack raw. What's in the bag dog?
Steal it from my dad just to get it some cash
We face a tall task dad, y'all enough with the fast talk

Give it to me straight, there's so much I could take Why they multiply the crimes and the violence by hate?
On the radio they play only things they pay Man, it's a shame cuz the music was our only escape so Now we all alone and everybody's a clone Cuz everybody's always on the cellular phone
So now we getting slow and becoming a drone We're missing out on really living, I just want you to know
This world

This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never
enough
This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never
enough
This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never
enough
This world is never enough, man, the world ain't never
