Down on your luck all the fucking time
You can't have what you want
Cuz it's been taken
Submission, depression
Pills booze dark rooms
So pathetic ask yourself
What's the fucking use
Get trashed smash glass
Fuck that rise up
Life's tough think straight
Now no one's safe
It's no use fuck you I hate you
And sooner or later
I'm coming to get you

Hatred has ended this depression
Look in my eyes
Revenge is coming
And that's a promise
Pay for your lies
I can see there's no way out
It's now so clear
What must be done

I wore no armor yeah you saw me cry
Tears of hatred now desensitized
How do you feel
I feel no remorse
I watch as fate turns a drastic course
Bloody red rivers run from your veins
Stab slice cut never again

Never again
It must be done
Never again
