And all this time ive waited for you sign Decending down from purifying skies Will you sit and wait or live it up on your terms
The devil waits for idle palms
Will you let them burn
Is the question now posed Those bloody fist dig deeper young thorns
Be not enslaved by words
But persure the facts Emancipation will come swiftly
The fairy tale is dead
Send away
Send away lies for a dying race

Send away
Send away and steal our human space With so much to say about the rest of mankind youd think hed make some kind of sense just in time Make holy your sabbath controlling the masses that make up human, desire, and life knee deep in the blood of immaculate virgin conception we say heretic in shame hipocrite what was that word crucifix
