She's got her long legs crossed on the hood of her ford.
And a rose tattoo her daddy doesn't know about.
Right under her belt.
She's got a hickey on her neck from the night before.
They went a little too far in the back of that 4 by 4.
Uh oh oh.

She blamed it on a cowboy let her get away.
I guess he didn't know how to treat her anyway.
And that's why she broke down and gave herself away.
Yeah it's all because of him and mikes hard lemonade.

Well she's been drinkin and lovin life single and free.
Her very favorite kind is cranberry.
Sometimes she wants to just dump it out.
Cause the grass aint always greener on the other side.
Sometimes she gets a little bit lonely at night.
She wants someone to hold under that bottle that's icy and cold.
So icy and cold.

Well she blames it on her cowboy let her get away.
I guess he didn't know how to treat her anyways
That's why she broke down and gave herself away.
Yeah it's all because of him and mikes hard lemonade.

But I promise she knew that she could do better
Maybe she; 'd tear up all his love letters.
And stop thinkin about him everyday.

But she still blames it on the cowboy let her get away.
I guess he didn't know how to treat her anyway.
And that's why she broke down and give herself away.
Yeah it's all because of him and mikes hard lemonade.
Yeah it's all because of him and mikes hard lemonade.
