Conversations start to end
Then all you do is pretend
You take everything from me and scratch the scars until they bleed
Keep my head on strong and I will prove you wrong
Just move right along
Pick up the pieces sweep up the ashes
You bring me down when your around
But even now I'll take your best shot
There's nothing left of me inside
But even now I'll take your best shot
Memories you tear apart
Pulling stitches from my heart
You would love for me to stay
I'll find a way to break away
Keep my head on strong and I will prove you wrong
Just move right along
Pick up the pieces sweep up the ashes
You bring me down when your around
But even now I'll take your best shot
But even now I'll take your best shot
