Lovesick dreaming when we first met
You gave me your world with no regrets
Never thought anything could come against
But oh what did I know

One mis-step and I'm on my own
You wash your hands clean of me, right or wrong
Behind those doors I was broken though
Trying to keep it out of sight of the world
I couldn't stay

A million miles that I have gone
It's times that say to give it up
Just tear me down or lift me up
No time for tears, no time for tears
No time for tears

Pull myself together and hear the sounds
Oh, my hearts been thrown around
I gave you my sky before I found my ground
Oh God, what did I know

Now come on, come on you got me wrong
Come on, come on just play along
Back to lovesick dreaming when we first met
Trying to keep it on top of the world
I need to stay

A million miles that I have gone
It's times that say to give it up
Just tear me down or lift me up
No time for tears, no time for tears

I know that now what is done is done
Now's that time to shake it off
Crazy cycles going on
No time for tears, no time for tears

No time for tears, no time for tears
No time for tears, no time for tears

A million miles that I have gone

It's times that say to give it up
Just tear me down or lift me up
No time for tears, no time for tears

No time for tears, no time for tears
No time for tears, no time for tears
No time for tears, no time for tears
No time for tears
