This was unexpected, I'm not gonna lie
I wasn't waiting for someone to save my life
But I'm believing that I can trust a try
All my life I've been independent, or so I say
I've tried to be single & happy, you got in that way
I am breathing for a brand new day

It's not quite perfection
But you're my reflection
The love in your eye doesn't lie
Exemplification
A new destination
And now I don't wanna cry

You send me to a new day, everything's alright
Who knew we'd be better after such a fight?
When you're sad babe, I want to die
So I try to make you happy, wouldn't let me in Following a new dream, finally it begins
I think I'm ready for the lights to dim

Who needs it perfect
When you're beyond worth it
And you tell me I helped you out?
The rifts & the angles
Could you be my angel?
The joy makes me want to cry now

Following the pressure
Love you with no measure
Wipe the tears from my eye

It's not quite perfection
But you're my reflection
The love in your eye doesn't lie
Exemplification
A new destination
And now I don't wanna cry

Who needs it perfect
When you're beyond worth it
And you tell me I helped you out?

The rifts & the angles
Could you be my angel?
The joy makes me want to cry now
