Maybe it's best if we go different ways
We've had fun but it's not right babe
The stars don't shine like they did yesterday
And there's a hollow chill in all that you say
When did you grow cold as you are now?
I feel like we're spinning quickly down
And when I do something nice, you're never proud
Don't have a spare hand to get me off the ground

[Chorus:]

Maybe it's time we said goodbye
We gave it our absolute best try
It's been a crazy fun kinda ride
Let's start from page one of our lives
And keep it cool in our eyes

My heart stands still when you look at me
But I wonder if it's just a stranger you see
Your kiss don't taste like it did last week
I can't stand for the two of us on my own feet
I need a breather, maybe take a break
Maybe not return to this no give, all take
Or will it be better when we awake?
You'll tell me good morning, that you love me babe

Maybe it's time we said goodbye
We gave it our absolute best try
It's been a crazy fun kinda ride
Let's start from page one of our lives
And keep it cool in our eyes

I could try to make up a lie and fib to get by
But karma comes around in it's own due time
You disappear into the back of my mind
But I still love you and walking away don't feel right
I'll keep trying to connect but to no use
It's been a good time, but I think we're through

Maybe it's time we said goodbye
We gave it our absolute best try
It's been a crazy fun kinda ride

And keep it cool in our eyes

Maybe it's time we said goodbye
We gave it our absolute best try
It's been a crazy fun kinda ride
Let's start from page one of our lives
And keep it cool in our eyes
