It's nothing short of a summer day
Are these butterflies giving me away?
Because my face lights up when you see my face
To know I have you near is what I'll always want
With you in my hands I'll love all that I got
And even though the weather's getting so hot

[Chorus:]

I can't stay away from touching you
I know even if we fight, we'll get through
No matter what either of us do
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you

Even in the dead of a cold winter's morning
I know you're the one who will be there listening
This marathon is the one we're never finishing
We'll go through trials just like anyone else
But being with you will never put me through hell
Does this feeling of love even ring a bell?
No one else will love you the way that I will

I can't stay away from touching you
I know even if we fight, we'll get through
No matter what either of us do
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you

So tell me that you're not in love
Tell me tell me baby you have had enough
I won't believe the lies you'd tell to me
Tell me it's nothing more than a crush
Say to me you've never felt any rush
When you look at me and say that you believe

I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you

I can't say it's going to be perfect
But with you in my arms it will be worth it

And no matter the stupid things we'll do
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
I'm always gonna be la la la loving you
