He sang me a slow song he wrote himself
It was a love song, but he left it shelved
Said he was waiting for the day
He could sing it to me and make it all okay
My prince has lost his armor
He left it for Hollywood's glamour

[Chorus:]

And this is my neverlasting love
Couldn't take it 'cause I'd had enough
This road I walk is tough
On my own
Show me what life is all about
Without the screams or the shouts
Finding someone to stick around
All alone

We kissed deeply in his front seat
But I know I wasn't his daydream
He never fantasized over me
And it took far too long to see

[Chorus:]

And this is my neverlasting love
Couldn't take it 'cause I'd had enough
This road I walk is tough
On my own
Show me what life is all about
Without the screams or the shouts
Finding someone to stick around
All alone

All the karma comes around
He said he didn't want tied down
Should have known it wasn't me

[Chorus:]

And this is my neverlasting love
Couldn't take it 'cause I'd had enough
This road I walk is tough
On my own
Show me what life is all about

Without the screams or the shouts
Finding someone to stick around

And this is my neverlasting love
Couldn't take it 'cause I'd had enough
This road I walk is tough
On my own, baby

Some things last for never
