I found your picture in my glovebox
Took it out and dusted it off
Damn, we had one good love
But then we both messed it up
You didn't want to commit
And I just couldn't fake it

[Chorus:]

It was like drinking old soda
From several years ago
It left a bad taste in my mouth
That wouldn't ever go
Expired, guess I shoulda known
It's hard to find my own way home

It's gonna be hard to re-get over you
But if I want to breathe, I'm gonna have to Didn't match the said description
Now we're both just an encription
I can't take all of this friction
Of if it was fact or was it fiction

[Chorus:]

It was like drinking old soda
From several years ago
It left a bad taste in my mouth
That wouldn't ever go
Expired, guess I shoulda known
It's hard to find my own way home

Coca-cola or diet pepsi
What you get is what you see
Orange aid or a root beer
I had hoped that you'd be here

But you aren't
I'm so lonely
And I can't
Stand the fizzing

[Chorus:]

It was like drinking old soda

From several years ago
It left a bad taste in my mouth
That wouldn't ever go
Expired, guess I shoulda known
It's hard to find my own way home

[Chorus:]

It was like drinking old soda
From several years ago
It left a bad taste in my mouth
That wouldn't ever go
Expired, guess I shoulda known
It's hard to find my own way home
