I've held on just too long no more loving from me you said I can't even sleep yeah I'm falling outta bed baby why can't you just take me back I feel like I'm being kicked off a track oh, i just imagine me holding you no one but us two we're alone again it feels like you must've been heaven sent you the boy I'm lookin' for you the boy I've been longing for how many more days until take me back again can I tell you more about my not-love life without you it's all struggle and strife you the boy

the boy
the boy
the boy

so here I am standing with you in the crowd don't even bother to look down cause I ain't gonna be there I know I'm the one that ran and yes it isn't fair but you see
I couldn't handle your love baby Now I just lie on my bed thinkin' about everythin you said yeah, and I thought we were together (chorus) no more love

no more trouble
I guess that's how you can put it but haven't you seen that together we fit hold me like you held her (we were meant to)be!!!! (chorus 2x)
