She's five foot three and Lord ain't she sweet
She's got everything a man believes he needs
But she ain't gonna stay, She don't work that way
And the man he is, you'd think it'd be something he could take

But the bigger the heart, the harder they fall
He can't help it, it ain't his fault.
Another man done been caught
The bigger the heart, the harder they fall.

He's always been rough I'm talking barroom tough
He always said he'd never fall in love
But now it's too late, He's in such a bad state
He's on his knees beggin her everyday

Cuz the bigger the heart, the harder they fall
He can't help it, it ain't his fault.
Another man done been caught
The bigger the heart, the harder they fall.

Yea the bigger the heart, the harder they fall
He can't help it, it ain't his fault.
Another man done been caught
The bigger the heart, the harder they fall.
Yea the bigger the heart, the harder they fall.
