Those memories haven't faded away
When I hated you for hurting me
All the things you did to make me feel bad about myself
I still remember when I said I'd do anything for you
You made me see that you were just having fun with my heart
Now you just realised that I'm the only one for you

But I only remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
All the things you did to hurt me
I can still remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
You said the one woman on earth for you wasn't me
So I picked up my broken heart
I've started all over again
But I still remember

When you said I wasn't good enough
My heart was too weak to love you
I promised myself that I'll find someone better than you
I just didn't forget how happy we could have been together
If you'd given us a chance to let this love happen
Now you say it's me
I'm the one you see in your dreams

But I only remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
All the things you did to hurt me
I can still remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
You said the one woman on earth for you wasn't me
So I picked up my broken heart
I've started all over again
But I still remember

When I was hurting inside
I pleaded with you
On my knees to stay with me
But it didn't change anything

Cus you'd said we were through
And nothing can change ur mind

But I only remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
All the things you did to hurt me
I can still remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
You said the one woman on earth for you wasn't me
So I picked up my broken heart
I've started all over again
But I still remember

But I only remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
All the things you did to hurt me
I can still remember(remember)
Remember(remember)
You said the one woman on earth for you wasn't me
So I picked up my broken heart
I've started all over again
But I still remember
