I had a headache when I woke up this morning
And a picture of you beside my head
And I drank till two
Till I fell out on the floor
The whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war

And I can't figure out just what went wrong
I play it in my head like an old Hank Williams song,
And I can't do this
I can't do this anymore
The whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war

Oh and it tears me up knowing she's with you,
Oh and I drink some more
For your memory I gotta lose

And I had a headache when I woke up this morning,
And a picture of you beside my head,
Oh and I drank till two
Till I just fell out on the floor
The whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war

Oh and the whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war
