Lights out. forget it. we're steering toward perfection and we blaze like giants tonight. if you help yourself to our deepest desires, you'll never know if we were more the liars. we can't keep quiet tonight. let's take flight. lights out. you're going to get it, it's the sweet taste of a confection at the hope that you like this..
"surprise surprise." as we help ourselves to your deepest desires, picking up speed, we're going so much faster. we can't keep quiet tonight. everybody dance tonight the ballroom sky is bright. everybody take flight. Tonight look towards the sky when those colors burn your eyes. we are the finders in this world. we came right behind you. in walking, your steps aren't so easy. that you can see. we can't sleep tonight. we came with our fire. everybody dance tonight the ballroom sky is bright. everybody take flight. take flight. we cannot stop this now, we are too high above the ground. you cannot stop us now. dance! over the sea. everybody dance tonight and out up over the ballroom sky into the next world. everybody dance tonight the ballroom sky is bright. So we took flight all along the coast, looking down at the sky from above.
We fell in love tonight with the ballroom sky
