We are the fallen ones
Begin the resistance
The moon has changed day into darkness
As we are kissed by funeral winds Marching toward the horizon
In fragmentic grim atmospheres
When the mysterious touch of darkness whispers
And hidden we will spread our wings
(So) may the night carry our minds to revenge
(We) seeking the path to end up in glory
In the shimmering and burning firmament Summoned we stand with dying feelings in our hearts Prepared to start the dance of pure violence Frozen silhouettes, beyond thy firmament, awaits those who cannot win Across the ocean of clouds we arise like a storm of everflowing tears Preludium of the forsaken, the tragical horizon of peace

Oh crimson beauty - dark sculptured entity Embraced in silence - eternal apathy
Oh crimson beauty - fortress to bury me Welcome my glory - Angels of jealousy

So outside the gate we stand to enter once again the halls of false eternity
A supreme shimmering spectrum offers, tormented cosmic chaos Enchanted symphonies of dawn lurk beyond, thy profane cryptic soulentrance Thou darkest dreams an astral solution Welcome rebellion the nocturnal resistance

Oh crimson beauty - sponsored so heavenly Night's protecting me - of angelic apathy Oh crimson beauty - I'm introducing me Create obscurity - Heaven thy destiny

Seduced in solitary dreams in harmless romantic forced whispers

Return to the pure sound of innocence the power of the night
Oh solution
The second storm rebellion, the profane resistance This time thy delirious Heaven shall be mine forced gentle to kiss my profane mind And all stars shall shine on velvet streamed illusions to the glimmering blaze of glory Look at the Heaven, the angelic forsaken sky of bitterness
Come forth, far beyond, to the astral grave (To the abyss millennium asylum of peaceful tyranny)

Oh crimson beauty - of sculptured memory Forsaken centuries - your ancient symphonies Oh supreme Angels - of tortured agony I'll bury peace - for perfect harmony
