Back on my feet again this time
Hopes shot down as you drive by
You tried too hard
So don't come back
There you are don't try to hide
Play your games with your foolish lies
Don't step back its in the past

Play your part
Your covert games
Just keep away
You know we're both the same
Act it out, this drama scene
And stay away
Keep your space from me

Back on my feet again this time
Back is turned from your despicable life
Don't ask now
Or ask how
There you are don't try to hide
Play your games with your foolish lies
Don't step back it's in the past

Play your part
Your covert games
Just keep away
You know we're both the same
Act it out, this drama scene
And stay away
Just keep your space from me

Why do you think the way you do all the time?
Eager for the best I hope you don't make it back
Trust you'll win the gold, trust you won't question me
Nothing's gonna happen when you're right next to me

So play your part (aaah)
And keep away

So play your part (aaah)

And keep away

Play your part
Your covert games
Just keep away
You know we're both the same
Act it out, this drama scene
And stay away
Just keep your space from me

It seems your burning
Its found its way
(Its found its way through the door)
