Did I tell you?

Did I tell you?

Did I tell you?

Did I tell you how much you hurt me?

I was crying you know

When I was there

You just care about you and yourself

Take your stuff and get lost

Yes! I'm growing yes! I'm drowning

I can hear how loud you're laughing

But you've always been a pain in my ass

Yes! I'm growing yes! I'm drowning

I can hear how loud you're laughing

But you've always been a pain in my ass

Now my head is clear

Now my eyes are painted black n white

Life goes on now

I have never felt this happy before

I don't miss you at all

Now he's crying

Now he's smiling

I can see how hard he's trying

But he's always been a loser for me
