Finally free from the prison walls
Free to explore our love
Free to love you with all my heart
You my darling my love

They will haunt us and chase us
For the rest of our lives
But they will never catch us
They can never kill our love

We'll wander from place to place
And at the end of each night
We'll hold each other for warmth
In the coldness of the night

O what magic it is
To truly love someone
To always be there for them
In times of trial and love
Take my hand
I'll hold you tight
I'll guide you through the night

Loves never a secret
Loves never a lie
I'll do whatever it takes
To keep you by myside

The memories we have shared
I'll keep for all time
I'll keep them in my heart
Until the day I die

74 peaceful years
Have past since we escaped
And now we move on to the next life
Our love grown stronger each day

O what magic it is
To truly love someone
To always be there for them
In times of trial and love

Take my hand
I'll hold you tight
I'll guide you
To the next life
