I used to think that we all never leave

I used to think I'll never say goodbye

Believed I'd live a thousand years

Nothing seemed impossible

But I have learned that nothing ever stays

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Nothing stays

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Nothing stays

Take my hand and lead me through the cold night

I'm so afraid to be alone

Can someone tell my why we're here

And tell my why I live in fear

The answers I'll find in me

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Nothing stays

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Everything fades away

Nothing stays
