There's a switch beneath my flesh and bone that reads
please do not touch
And a thousand roads that I could take but I still self destruct
Its the dance
Its the dance
Of my life

Call a calvary on the carousel you can always find me on
I'm the kid who's been to many times but now the novelties warn off
Its the ride
Its the ride
Of my life

And all those dreams still in their somewhere
They come to life
While I still sleep
But in these dreams of animations
Wont you come with me
Wont you come with me

There are many cities
Deep inside and its easy to get lost
I will try and knock some buildings down to make more space for us
Your the prettiest
And the openest
Of my life

And all those dreams
Still in their somewhere
They come to life
While I still sleep
But in these dreams of animations
Wont you come with me
Wont you come with me
