Lives in Edinburgh
Just across the road
Sometimes my stereo and in my aching bones
It's on the sugar hill and in your ring tone

Shake those windows
Sums and songs and
Beats and rhymes
And I like this blackout
It just helps to love those clear night skies

Just let the record play and bring it back again
You can't appreciate what we were into then

In two seconds the beat was recognised
And all the old school heads nodded back in time
And though we just met I've known you all my life

Shake those windows
Sums and songs and
Beats and rhymes
And I like this blackout
It just helps to love those clear night skies

Just let the record play and bring it back again
You can't appreciate what we were into then

Just let the record play and bring it back again
You can't appreciate what we were into then

Just let the record play and bring it back again
You can't appreciate what we were into then

Just let the record play and bring it back again

Just let yourself go

Just let yourself go
