Now we're singing for a song
For a song we play

More, more, I hear your voices crying out
My sweat is running, my heartbeat is loud
The spots are burning like fire high above
Restless, you can't get enough

Voices
I hear your voices and obey
Voices
And our voices singing every day

Now we're singing for a song
For a song we play
Now we're singing for a song
This time and every day

The crazy crowd is screamin' for more
It takes no end, you want more and more
Your hands are moving like waves in the sea
I'm exhausted but I'm feeling free

Voices
I hear your voices and obey
Voices
And our voices singing every day

Now we're singing for a song
For a song we play
Now we're singing for a song
This time and every day

I hear the voices in me
I hear the voices in me
I hear the voices in me
I hear the voices in me

Voices
I hear your voices and obey
Voices
And our voices singing every day

Now we're singing for a song
For a song we play
Now we're singing for a song
This time and every day

Now we're singing for a song
For a song we play
Now we're singing for a song
This time and every day, every day
