Are you cold as ice, are you hot like fire?
Going to extremes, your desire
Go to the left, go to the right
In the middle you will find a reason not to fight

Different worlds, different things
Different thoughts of different people
God given blaze of color everywhere

Heaven in black, heaven in white
Loving the darkness and the light
Different thoughts could make our life so colorful

Heaven in black, heaven in white
Living by day and loving the night
Opposites attract in our life

Everybody is black, every flower is gray
The same old prayers we all pray
A boring world without good and bad
Our life would really be so sad

Different worlds, different things
Different thoughts of different people
God given blaze of color everywhere

Heaven in black, heaven in white
Loving the darkness and the light
Different thoughts could make our life so colorful

Heaven in black, heaven in white
Living by day and loving the night
Opposites attract in our life, everybody's life

Heaven in black, heaven in white
Heaven in black, heaven in white
Loving the darkness and the light
Different thoughts could make our life so colorful

Heaven in black
(Heaven in black)
Heaven in white

(Heaven in white)
Loving the darkness and the light

Heaven in black
(Heaven in black)
Heaven in white
(Heaven in white)
Loving the darkness, loving the light

Heaven in black and white
