Green horses on black rush are standing all around
White shadows of red clouds is all I dream about
Can see the trees are blue, don't wanna see like you
Everything is clear, where is your fantasy?

Oh, I invite you to my wonderland
Where everything is possible all the time
I don't expect that you understand
But miracles can change your world like mine

I'm gonna live like a sphinx, spreadin' my wings
Let miracles rain down on you
In the temple of dreams, the fantasy streams
Break out of the circle of life

The flowers big like trees are feeding green red bees
A land where snow is pink, here I can dream and think
All pictures of my life are painted in my mind
All colors that I see, they shine for you and me

Oh, I invite you to my wonderland
Where everything is possible all the time
I don't expect that you understand
But miracles can change your world like mine

I'm gonna live like a sphinx, spreadin' my wings
Let miracles rain down on you
In the temple of dreams, the fantasy streams
Break out of the circle of life

Oh, I invite you to my wonderland
Anything is possible all the time
I don't expect that you understand
But miracles can change your world like mine, mine

I'm gonna live like a sphinx, spreading my wings
Miracles rain down on you
In the temple of dreams, the fantasy streams
Break out of the circle of life

I'm gonna live
I'm gonna live

I'm gonna live like a sphinx
Like a sphinx
