Fever is growing in their veins
Flashlights cold eyes
Back to the start
Take a coin for your game
The game sucks your luck

Press all buttons down to play
Like a drug, like a derailing train
Falling in the trap of these games

Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies
Living in a world of shame and glory
It's a flight into other lies

The coin is your key in a nightmare world
Machines and dreams
Luck for a minute, you're a loser in life
Once more high score

All our misery, illusions of reality
Don't let them take possession of you

Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies
Living in a world of shame and glory
It's a flight into other lies

Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies
Living in a world of shame and glory

Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies
Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies

Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies
Living in a world of shame and glory
It's a flight into other lies

Living in a world of shame and glory
Living in a world of shame and lies
Living in a world of shame and glory
It's a flight

Living in a world
Living in a world
Living in a world
