Save me

The earth was young when I was sown
Deep inside this land

Save me

How helpless, I stand here alone
Waitin' for my end

Save me

Centuries have flown away
But I know my time has come

Save me

No escape I cannot stay
Do they know what they have done?

Save me

If you save me, you'll save yourself
Why don't you understand?

Save me

Your fate will be sealed, if you destroy me
You will live in a wasteland

My life is your life

And your life is mine

We belong together

Since the beginning of all time

If I were a man

I know what I would think

"Life is a chain, we're all its links"

So all that you can do is to

Save me

Save me, save me

Save me

Save me, save me

Save me

Save me, save me

Save me

Save me, save me

Wars and pain and misery
I've survived, I still exist
I've lived through your history
And watched you through the mist

My life is your life
And your life is mine
We belong together
Since the beginnin' of all time

If I were a man
I know what I would think
"Life is a chain, we're all its links"
So all that you can do is to

Save me
Save me, save me
Save me
Save me, save me

Save me
Save me, save me
Save me
Save me, save me

If I were a man
I know what I would think
"Life is a chain and we're all its links"
So all that you can do is to

Save me
Save me, save me
Save me
Save me, save me

Save me
Save me, save me
Save me
Save me, save me
Save me

Imagine your soul is in me
[Incomprehensible]
