Turn around, we're coming back again
You'll know us now, I'll meet you on the way
Name the time and name the place
We'll fall in line, chasing the race

Breathe in, when everything is over
Breathe in, when everything is complete

Moments by moments
We march on
Our insides hold the darkest of secrets
Though we live on

Feel the heat, taking on the atmosphere
A smokey haze, the warmth inside your veins

Breathe in, when everything is over
Breathe in, when everything is complete

Moments by moments
We march on
Our insides hold the darkest of secrets
Though we live on
