I keep waiting for our love to be
Just how we used to be
And I keep praying that
I see you smile although it's been a while

Tell me the reason that
You're stalking me without good respect
Too little baby, much too late
Ain't gonna be my big mistake

For once in my life
Want to do what's right for me
For once in my life
Got to see what I believe

For once in my life
Not gonna take it anymore
For once in my life
You got to deal with the feel that
I'm ready for a new day at dawn

Someday soon I know
I'll find someone who'll help me see the sun
Somehow I ain't gonna feel alone
It's time for moving on

Show me the reason why
You're stalking me without good respect
Too little baby, much too late
Ain't gonna be my big mistake

For once in my life
Want to do what's right for me

For once in my life
Got to see what I believe

For once in my life
Not gonna take it anymore
For once in my life
You got to deal with the feel that
I'm ready for a new day at dawn

I keep waiting for our love to be
Just how it used to be
I keep praying that I see you smile
Although it's been a while

Tell me the reason that
You're stalking me without good respect
Too little baby, much too late
Ain't gonna be my big mistake

For once in my life
Want to do what's right for me
For once in my life
Got to see what I believe

For once in my life
Not gonna take it anymore
For once in my life
You got to deal with the feel that

For once in my life
Want to do what's right for me
For once in my life
Got to see what I believe
