If priests are princes' hallowed shadowed souls if devils are angels cast to know I live forever with a sharp regret it might be a surprise to know I never wished for death a hint of misery made its way along to those who've never harmed or never wronged if honesty changed the hearts of men who could contend?

if all I thought were true in this great divide that is my life I fear to think of all I'd undo

even my own ears would never care to know what deep inside ourselves our hearts behold a sky in shards, our world's unraveled parts impossible to piece as one in our unending dark
