You're like a letter that's never mailed You're like a hammer without a nail You've been standing in this place for far too long

You come to the table and you get fed Then you hide it inside your head Why not open up and start to run

Go and Be nothing less than you 'Cause you begin in Him He'll show you what you need to know to Go and Be every single day Go and Be

You're like a winner without a prize You're like a bird without a sky You're not into the race until you run

So run with your life and you will find All the things that you leave behind Don't mean that much when everything's brand new

Go and Be nothing less than you Cause you begin in Him He'll show you what you need to know to Go and Be every single day Who you are in Him Go and Be

Will you be the one to come and see? Will you be the one to go and be?

Go and be nothing less than you 'Cause you begin in Him He'll show what you need to know to Go and Be every single day Who you are in Him One who loves as Jesus loves Now go and be Nothing less than you Go and be Nothing less than true Would you come and see All there is to be Come and see Go and be
