[Verse 1]

You are the risen King
You hold everything
In your hands so strong
This is where I belong

[Verse 2]

You made the night and day
The moon and the stars obey
Every word you speak
The highest authority

[Pre-Chorus]

We join with all creation as we sing
We join with all of heaven as we sing

[Chorus]

We lift your name on high
We lift your name on high
There's more than meets the eye
As we lift your name on high

[Verse 3]

You hear my every thought
You hear my every call
You know my every need
Nothing's too hard for you

[Bridge]

We lift your name
We lift your name

We join with all creation
We join with all creation
We join with all creation
We join with all of heaven as we sing
