Verse:

You hold my world in Your hands
Your love is greater than I understand
Whatever I face I know, You go before me

You hear my voice when I call
Reached down from heaven You captured my soul
Whatever I face I know you go before me

Chorus:

You've opened the eyes of my heart
The horizon reaches so far
Now You've brought me out to this spacious place
You delight in me

You've uncovered the depths of Your heart
And the wonder of all that You are
Now I see how high, how wide, how deep
Is Your love for me
Your love for me

Ending

Is Your love for me
