"Tremble"

Shaking like a leaf
Afraid to lift my eyes
Afraid of all your glory
Ashamed of all my pride
Then you call me in
To your holy place
I fall down
Down on my face
And i beckon you for mercy
And i beckon you to forgive everything that i've ever done
And i tremble
And i tremble
I am just a man
Showered in your grace
You're the holy god
Your glory fills this place
And i beckon you for mercy
And i beckon you to forgive everything i've ever done
And i tremble
I tremble
