"You Still Amaze Me"

There's nothing new under the sun
Left for me to do
The last great thrills i've felt are fleeting
Once i was excited
For the things the world could give
But no more
I'm only thrilled by you, and you
You still amaze me
You still amaze me
Bigger than the sky
Brighter than the sun
You're the one
You filled me with the things i need
And gave me something more
And i've ran with the freedom
That you gave me
You're the reason for the stars that decorate my night
So i sing, yeah i sing
You're the maker
And i'm free to be loved
I'm alive from your gentle touch
I'm touched from the sky
Let me cry, you're amazing
