Come with me if you want to see anything worth while,
my child
I'll show you anything and everything
Go to heaven for the weather
But to hell to sell your soul
I'll show you where mine went so long ago

Teach you everything you need to know
The way to love and feel it in your bones
Grab the sheets and make her toes ravel
Her lips whisper
She wants you, Oh!

The more you listen to me, you'll see
Everything that you need to be, from me
I'll show you all that you need, to be
The greatest lover to come after me

Oh, I can show if you want to know exactly how to say her name
To make her scream and shout, but not from pain
Ecstasy is all that she'll feel when you kiss her lightly
It's frightening
There is no room for sparks, show her lightning

Teach you everything you need to know
The way to love and feel it in your bones
Grab the sheets and make her toes ravel
Her lips whisper
She wants you, Oh!

The more you listen to me, you'll see
Everything that you need to be, from me
I'll show you all that you need, to be
The greatest lover to come after me

I can't wait to see inside
See exactly what your made of (made of)
I can see right through your eyes
See exactly where you came from (came from)
I'll take you out around the town
I will break you down (I will break you down)

I'll leave you high and dry, girl
I'll make your body cry, girl
I'll make your body
Make your body
Make your body cry out!

Teach you everything you need to know
The way to love and feel it in your bones
Grab the sheets and make her toes ravel
Her lips whisper
She wants you, Oh!

Come on girl and take a ride with me
Take your time, there isn't need for speed
I'll take it slow and make you lose control
Your lips whisper
I want you, Oh!

The more you listen to me, you'll see
Everything that you need to be, from me
I'll show you all that you need, to be
The greatest lover to come after me
