Do... you like the way it feels when nobody will reply... to your questions?

Do... you like the way it feels whenever you ignore me makes me cry, makes me crazy

I... don't like the things you do
Don't like what you become
Don't like what you do to me
You're already gone.

Feels so far away, left me on my own
Even though you're next to me, you're already gone

You... you think you know it all
You think you hold the key to life and it's questions...
But you... you've got a lot to learn
Stop thinking of yourself
You're making me lose my head
You're already gone.

Feels so far away, left me on my own
Even though you're next to me, you're already gone

It ain't a problem, it's my job son
Sweep the streets clean, mix it up keep it mean
Best players in the frame up in the game
Think it's gonna change but it's still the same uh-
Still my pop caps the rocks-
Hold the pipsqueaks in smoky rocks
(You're already gone)
There's always time to fall on their face what-
Only someone will erase yeah-
You might think that you can hurt me down
Steal my jewels uh-
Wear my frown
But in the end yo-
Find the funk smoked out placed down in the funk
If you'd all move to my plan
Things will work out fine- turn out grand
If everything works to my design
We all gonna be down and it's still all mine

I... can't take you anymore
Can't take the way you treated me
You make me crawl
You're already gone.

Feels so far away, left me on my own
Even though you're next to me, you're already gone

You're already, you're already, you're already gone.
You're already, you're already, you're already gone.

You're already gone...
