I see you even pack up all your accessories girl but tell me did you really pack up all your memories girl did you think that I'll make it all so easy, girl to turn around and let me go so easy, girl

Pre Chorus:

This ain't something we bought, this ain't something we thought up
this is something we built yeah on our hands and knees
this ain't something we tried, this is something we do baby it's me and you, can't you see?

Chorus:

There's nobody better, so don't change the weather
you'll never find another one to love like me
there's no you use denying or trying to find it
you'll never find another one to love like me
Never ever find, never ever find, never ever find no
one like me
Never ever find, never ever find, never ever find no
one like me, no

I see you done already took away your Louie Vuitton's did you forget the pack the melody of every song I wrote for you I told you one two many time already yeah yeah that you're the one that I'm gonna marry yeah yeah no

Pre Chorus:

This ain't something we bought, this ain't something we
thought up
this is something we built yeah on our hands and knees
this ain't something we tried, this is something we do
baby it's me and you, can't you see?

Chorus:

There's nobody better, so don't change the weather
you'll never find another one to love like me
there's no you use denying or trying to find it
you'll never find another one to love like me
Never ever find, never ever find, never ever find no

one like me
Never ever find, never ever find, never ever find no
one like me, no

Kiss me one more time,
I dare you
I won't waste your time I swear we got the key to the world right here it's you and I, you and I, it's you and I, you and I

[Chorus:]

Never..never ever find
Never..never ever find
Never..never ever find
