I'm Stumbling through the science of penetrating your guard
Maybe it's the words I left out that could have taken me farther Or maybe it's the secrets that you hide, that I'll never recognize Well don't you dare, Don't you dare, Don't you dare

I know your right to never compromise It's always black or white, because gray is full of lies
I know you hear the beating of my heart But I don't know how...

You take control
I'm struggling for the meaning... of letting go
And I fail to recognize the reason I still get hypnotized when I'm near you
Well I don't know
But it feels so right, And I know tonight you've got me, You've got me, You've got me
Here

I'm trying to get stronger when I'm around you You say, That there's no point in fighting what I cannot win anyway
You've said enough, You've said enough
I have to take action, there's no better time than right now
But I still don't know how...

You take control
I'm struggling for the meaning... of letting go
And I fail to recognize the reason I still get hypnotized
when I'm near you
Well I don't know
But it feels so right, And I know tonight you've got me,
You've got me, You've got me
And I'm trying to make sense of, what I don't understand
But it's hard enough to see you, without me breaking down
But I've had enough

I've had enough
I need some time away
So I can clear you from my head
I'm tired of the games you play
Because I aint your board and I aint your pieces
And I aint coming back and I don't need a reason I'm talking about away from you
I'm talking about away from you...
And Go... And Go...
I'm following footsteps and I don't know where I'm going
But it's away from you Ignore my emotions when I hear your voice inside my head
I've had enough
