Did I find my way
I can't see a thing
Did I come crashing down
With my broken wings
Lay me down and feel me
Because you're the only one
Who can heal me

And I need you to Lay Your Hands on Me
When I feel you I forget to breathe
I'm falling down down baby
You're gonna save me when I can't even stand
So just Lay Your Hands on Me

And now I see the truth
That life goes on
It's like the way you hear the words
When I sing this song
I open my eyes hoping to find
Something that I thought would change me
I found it was you somehow I knew
You would help me find my way again

You found me just in time here
Didn't mean to cause you all of these bad years
Seems like yesterday I thought I would disappear
But I'm a changed man and now you've made thing clear...
And I see... What I need... and you'll be...
The one that I want the one that I need
And I see... What I need... And you'll be what I need
Lay Your Hands on Me
I forget to breathe
